

Women's Studies

What can I do with this degree?

Areas	Employers	Strategies
ART Education Administration Author	Advertising agencies Corporate advertising departments Specialty advertising firms Consulting firms Marketing firms Self employed/Freelance	Gain sales experience. Work in sales at campus newspaper or radio station. Develop organizational and communication skills. Learn to think strategically.
GENERAL BUSINESS Management Sales Marketing Human Resources	Retail Stores Retail Stores Retail Stores Department Stores	Gain Leadership experience through participation in student organizations Get hands-on experience in area of interest.
EDUCATION Teaching Research Special Services Guidance Counseling School Social Work Library/ Information Services	Elementary, middle and secondary schools: Public and Private Two-year and community colleges	Complete a college level teacher preparation program. Obtain teaching certificate/licensure for subject area. Graduate study required for "special services" fields. Obtain master's degree in area to become specialist.

HEALTH EDUCATION Teaching Research Information/Library Services	Four-year colleges and universities Medical and professional schools	Earn Ph.D to teach and research at four-year institutions. Gain experience through student positions. Obtain masters in Library/Information sciences.
HEALTH CARE Research Chiropractor Medicine Health Education	Hospitals Self-Employed Hospitals Public Health Programs	Meet with advisors periodically. Maintain outstanding grade point average. Certification is required. Additional schooling is required.
LAW Lawyer	Private law firms Corporations Federal, state, and local government	Acquire excellent research and writing skills. Additional schooling is required. Maintain high grade point average. Plan to take the LSAT
POLITICS Special Interest Advocacy	Political Parties	Volunteer for national or local campaigns. Gain experience through internships in government and campus organizations
SOCIAL WORK Counseling Clinical Social Work Rehabilitation Youth Services	Prisons and correctional facilities Hospitals Hospitals and Courts Probation offices	Obtain experience by volunteering at a corrections facility or victims programs such as a rape crisis center. Gain experience with children at daycare centers or camps.