The Department of History is accepting applications for the Lass Student Research Grants. The Grants may be used to support undergraduate and graduate student research. Students may use their grants for travel reimbursement, per diem expenses (meals and hotels), as well as purchasing copies, supplies, or other materials. Research projects include: Senior Seminar Paper, Alternate Plan Paper, or Master’s Thesis as well as any other significant research project. Grants will be awarded twice during the academic year and you may apply during both award periods (regardless of whether you were awarded a grant in the previous period). Application deadline: February 19, 2010.
