

The Human-Animal Studies Minor and Social Justice Lecture Series present

ETHICS AND ANIMALS

A DISCUSSION WITH PETER SINGER

Peter Singer's ground-breaking book, Animal Liberation, was first published in 1975. In this talk, Singer will summarize the key ideas, including the ethics on which the book is based, and ask what progress we have made, if any, since then. There will be ample time for questions and discussion.

Thursday, April 25 6:30–7:30 pm
Join on Zoom or at the Watch Party in CSU 201

Register: <https://rebrand.ly/EthicsAndAnimals> or with this QR Code

The event is free and open to Minnesota State, Mankato students, faculty, and staff, as well as to members of the Mankato community. No registration is required to attend the in-person watch party, but zoom attendees must register with an mnsu.edu email address. If you are part of the Mankato community but do not have an mnsu.edu email address, please contact carol.glasser@mnsu.edu to register.

Questions? Contact carol.glasser@mnsu.edu

Event Sponsors: Department of Philosophy, Languages and Cultures & Department of Sociology