RECEPTION
The Department of History, Minnesota State University, Mankato, will host a poolside reception in the Mankato City Center Hotel on Thursday, September 22 from 5:00-6:30 p.m.

SPECIAL PROGRAM:
On Wednesday evening, September 21 at 7:30 p.m. (Hughes Room, Mankato City Center Hotel), Jessica Potter and David Engen will present “Front Street Memories.” Through photographs and sound, Potter, executive director of the Blue Earth County Historical Society and Engen, associate professor of communication studies, Minnesota State University, Mankato, will relate the history of Front Street. The street, which ran through the space now occupied by the lobby of the Mankato City Center Hotel, was Mankato’s business hub until the advent of urban renewal in the 1960s and 1970s. Potter and Engen intend that their Front Street stories will become part of an exhibit and book being created by the Blue Earth County Historical Society. “Front Street Memories” will not only portray an essential aspect of Mankato’s history, but will also provide insight into the national pattern of downtown decline and urban renewal as a delayed reaction to the automobile age.

ORGANIZATIONAL LUNCHEONS: RESERVATIONS MUST BE MADE BY MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19. Tickets at $16.00 each should be purchased by using the registration form in this program.

12:45 p.m., Thursday, September 22: Society for Military History, Poolside, Mankato City Center Hotel
12:45 p.m., Friday, September 23: Women’s History Interest Group, Poolside, Mankato City Center Hotel
THE BANQUET
The conference banquet will be held on Friday, September 23, at 7:00 p.m. in the Hughes, Jackson and Johnson rooms space. In the hour preceding the banquet there will be a no-host reception in the same area.

The banquet speaker is Gary Clayton Anderson, George Lynn Cross Research Professor of History at the University of Oklahoma. Dr. Anderson is widely recognized as one of the nation’s leading authorities on American Indian history. His numerous publications include The Conquest of Texas: Ethnic Cleansing in the Promised Land (Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 2005), which was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize in History. His Kinsman of Another Kind: Dakota-White Relations in the Upper Mississippi Valley, 1650-1862 (1984) and Little Crow: Spokesman for the Sioux (1986) are major contributions to the historiography of the Dakota Indians in Minnesota. Currently, he is working on a book manuscript titled “The Dakota War of 1862: America’s Other Civil War.” The title of his banquet address is “The Spirit and the Flesh: The Dakota War of 1862 as an ‘Ethnohistorical’ Conundrum.”

The cost of the banquet is $25.00. Tickets should be purchased by using the registration form in this program.

BANQUET RESERVATIONS MUST BE MADE BY MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19.

LARRY ROWEN REMELE AWARD
This award was established by the Northern Great Plains History Conference Council to honor the memory of Larry Rowen Remele. A longtime editor of North Dakota History, Remele was serving as council chair at the time of his death in 1988. As a founder of the council, a program coordinator and conference promoter he contributed significantly to the enhancement of the conference.

The Larry Rowen Remele Award is granted annually to a person, who, in the Remele tradition, has performed outstanding work for the conference. Kathleen K. Davison, editor of North Dakota History, is the recipient of this year’s award. As a council member and program coordinator, she has contributed immensely to the conference’s high quality and success.

The 2011 selection committee consisted of Joseph C. Fitzharris, University of St. Thomas and Society for Military History, J. Michael McCormack, Bismarck State College and William E. Lass (chair), Minnesota State University, Mankato.

In 1862, Congress passed four landmark pieces of legislation: the Homestead Act, the Morrill Act, the Pacific Railroad Act, and the act to establish the U.S. Department of Agriculture; it was also the year of the fateful Dakota Conflict. These acts and events fundamentally shaped the Great Plains as well as the nation. The 2012 Symposium at the University of Nebraska will examine their consequences for the society, culture, and commerce of the Great Plains.
